STATOTHR

2. (Confidential - JMM) Called Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, and informed him, in response to his earlier question (see Journal of 15 January), that the Agency was in no way involved in the State Department action reinstating the security clearance of [REDACTED] I thanked Sourwine for his courtesy in touching base with us on the matter, and he said he merely wanted to be sure that any action the Subcommittee might take on the case would not cause the Agency any problems. I said it was my understanding that a number of years ago when the case was active there had been some Agency involvement and that naturally we would prefer to avoid any publicity in this regard but so far as the current phase of the matter was concerned all we knew was what we read in the papers. Sourwine said he understood our position and very much doubted the details of the earlier episodes in the case would be dug into in detail, and in any event nothing would be brought out which had not already appeared in the public purview. Sourwine volunteered the remark that he personally had nothing against [REDACTED] and if he needed some STATOTHR sort of security clearance for access to information on a "need-to-know basis" in order to make a living this shouldn't cause any problem.

7. Secret - GLC) Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Special Subcommittee on Internal Security, returned to me the publication entitled Restless Youth which we had made available to him previously.

During the course of my visit with Sourwine, he talked by long distance telephone to Director Millikan of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) on the case of [REDACTED] Mr. Sourwine subsequently informed me he had ascertained that MIT had talked with the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency (ACDA) about the possibility of [REDACTED] working for MIT as a consultant on unclassified matters but had raised with ACDA the possibility that MIT might want to involve [REDACTED] in certain classified aspects of this work if the question of his security clearance could be resolved. According to Sourwine, ACDA then consulted with Assistant Secretary of State Katzenbach, who presumably made a "determination" with regard to [REDACTED] clearance. All of this was supposedly purely anticipatory and advisory in nature. Sourwine says that now MIT proposes to raise these issues officially.

In response to my query, Mr. Sourwine said that Senator Eastland has reintroduced his omnibus amendments to the Internal Security Act in exactly the same form in which his bill was introduced in the last Congress. It is their strategy to amend the new bill in Subcommittee to include the same amendments which were made to S. 2988 in the 90th Congress. This will avoid the necessity for conducting additional hearings on the bill. (This situation could affect our plans to approach Sourwine with a suggested amendment to the bill having to do with disclosures of information.)

8. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met with Mr. Darrell St. Claire, Chief Clerk in the office of the Secretary of the Senate, and received from him copies of the President's supplemental Budget Message and other information relating to the proposed executive pay increase. Mr. St. Claire was most courteous in his assistance and stated his personal pleasure on the continuance of Mr. Helms as Director of the Agency.

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 15 January 1969

1. (Confidential - JGO) Received a call from Mr. J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, who advised that the Subcommittee intends a review in depth of the security clearance procedures and reviews that were conducted concerning the security clearance of [REDACTED]. The Subcommittee, however, does not want to proceed in their normal fashion if there is any danger of interference with Agency interests or activities. If such danger exists, the Committee would of course conduct their review in a fashion that would accommodate Agency interests. I thanked Mr. Sourwine for his concern and advised that I would relay his query and be back in touch with him.

2. (Secret - JGO) Talked to Mr. Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and after discussion with him, put off the planned briefing by [REDACTED] C/FE, until next week. Further conversation will be necessary with Mr. William Woodruff, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, before scheduling the briefing. Mr. [REDACTED] has been advised.

3. (Internal Use Only - CEA) Picked up Professor S. Calian and a group of six at the office of Representative John Culver (D., Iowa) and brought them to the Agency for a briefing by Drex Godfrey.

4. (Internal Use Only - CEA) Mrs. Ann Bolton, in the office of Representative Edward J. Derwinski (R., Ill.), called on behalf of a constituent who had deserted the Army to East Germany and who since has returned and wants to bring his wife and child into the United States. I told Mrs. Bolton that this is primarily a visa problem and she should get in touch with the Department of State.

5. (Internal Use Only - CEA) J. Sourwine, Staff Director, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called to say he was forwarding to the Agency a letter containing particularly scurrilous charges against the Agency. Sourwine said he is sending this for our information only and no reply is necessary.

6. (Secret - JGO) Met with Mr. Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, who was most complimentary about the treatment accorded him on his recent trip and the caliber of personnel he met during the various briefings.

His time will be fairly well occupied on Thursday for scheduling Committee meetings and for a brief time on Wednesday afternoon. His time will be free during the remainder of the week. He suggested that we schedule out a time with Mr. Woodruff for this week, if possible, for briefing on the Far East by [REDACTED] C/FE. This briefing is a followup to the December briefing of Messrs. Woodruff and Michaels here at the Headquarters. I told Mr. Michaels we would contact Mr. Woodruff and be back in touch with him.

7. (Secret - JMM) In response to a call from William Miller, Administrative Assistant to Senator John Sherman Cooper (R., Ky.), and with the approval of the Director, I accompanied Messrs. [redacted] (OCI) and [redacted] (FE) to Senator Cooper's office this afternoon. Senator Cooper was interested in the present situation in Communist China and in the possibility of a somewhat more flexible U.S. policy toward the Peking regime. [redacted] summarized the situation regarding the internal conditions and foreign relations of the ChiCom regime and in response to the Senator's question pointed out some of the possible results and limitations of any U.S. effort to improve Chinese-American relations at this stage.

8. (Confidential - GLC) John Norpel, Research Director, on the staff of the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security, called to pass on some information he thought we would want to know about concerning the hospitalization of Allen Dulles at the Georgetown University Hospital. Norpel's wife works at the Hospital and had received this information from [redacted] one of the nurses attending Mr. Dulles. I thanked Norpel for calling us on this. The information has been passed on to Dr. Tietjen and Mr. Osborn.

9. (Confidential - GLC) At his request, I dropped by to see William Woodruff, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee. Woodruff gave me an employment application form on [redacted] who served as Executive Assistant to Senator Carl Hayden (D., Ariz.) until the Senator's retirement. Woodruff said Senator Russell would be calling the Director regarding employment possibilities here and Woodruff wanted to alert me to this. Woodruff said Senator Russell would not be calling the Director for several days and not until Senator Hayden asked him to do so. [redacted] application has been sent to the Director of Personnel for review.

STATSPEC 9. (Secret - CEA) Delivered a copy of the Agency paper "Restless Youth" to Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. It was agreed that I would pick up the paper on 17 January.

STAT 10. (Internal Use Only - RW) Mr. Howard Cohen, in the office of Representative Donald Rumsfeld (R., Ill.), called to request subscriptions to four FBIS Area Books: Eastern Europe, Middle East and Africa, Latin America and Western Europe, and Asia and Pacific. These should be sent to his attention, 103 Cannon House Office Building. They were particularly interested in having the first two listed above started as soon as possible.

[] FBIS, will take care of these subscriptions.

11. (Unclassified - LLM) Mr. Irving Jacobs, of the Social Security Administration, called and advised that they had not met their deadline on transmitting the report on Social Security and Federal employment to the House Ways and Means and Senate Finance Committees which has been the subject of previous correspondence between us. He said a letter was being sent to the Director to request comments on an updated version of the report, which also contains specific recommendations, prior to its submission to the congressional committees involved. I pointed out several errors in the appendixes to the report, which we had recently received separately, and he said he would make these corrections as they pertain to the CIA and Civil Service systems.

I informed Sourwine that, in response to his request, we would lend him a copy of a paper we had done last September entitled "Restless Youth." (I understand there is a particularly sensitive version of this paper, but this is not the version under consideration.) I explained to Sourwine that there might be in the paper he receives some passing references to youth activities within the U. S. , but that these are only incidental to the main theme of the paper and we would want to be certain that any such references to conditions in the U. S. are treated with maximum discretion. Sourwine fully accepted this admonition.

25X1A 6. (Internal Use Only - GLC) [redacted] called to say that [redacted] had advised Headquarters 25X1A that he recently talked with Wade Isaacs, Administrative Assistant to Rep. David E. Satterfield (D. , Va.), in the Congressman's Richmond office.
Isaacs indicated to [redacted] that, as previously discussed, Satterfield would very much like to visit the Agency perhaps next week. Isaacs added that both he and the Congressman's legislative assistant would be interested in accompanying Mr. Satterfield. I advised [redacted] that we would get in touch with Isaacs here and follow-up on this. 25X1A

25X1C 6. (Confidential - JGO) In response to his call, met with Mr. George Norris, Counsel, House Armed Services Special Subcommittee on Seapower, who requested a brief rundown on the current picture and forecast, both political and economic, of the country of Liberia. Chairman Charles Bennett (D., Fla.) is currently reviewing registration of commercial vessels and has noted in particular the disproportionate amount of tonnage flying the Liberian flag. DD/I has been advised.

8. (Unclassified - CEA) Informed Roy Carlson, Administrative Assistant to Representative Julia Hansen (D., Washington), that STAT would be interviewed by our recruiter on 13 January. See Journal of 6 January.

25X1A 9. (Confidential - CEA) J. Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, called and said he understood that the Agency has prepared a study on Communist influence in radical student activities on a worldwide basis. He asked if it would be possible for him to read the study, and if not if we could provide a briefer to brief him on the subject as his Subcommittee is planning to hold hearings on this subject during this session. I told him I would look into it and be back in touch with him.

1. (Internal Use Only - GLC) Fran Hewitt, on the staff of the Senate Appropriations Committee, called to say that he had a considerable amount of classified material to be destroyed and asked if we would assist (as we have in the past) by making our incinerator facilities available for this purpose. I told Hewitt we would be happy to cooperate with him and would make arrangements with him for this to be done next week.

2. (Confidential - GLC) Jay Sourwine, on the staff of the Senate Special Subcommittee on Internal Security, called to say he wanted to be quite clear regarding our position on the [] case. He said he plans to talk to Chairman Eastland about this in the next few days and wanted to be sure he fully understood our position.

approach. I told Sourwine I would discuss this with Mr. Maury on his return and we would be in touch with him early next week. Sourwine said he was not trying to pressure us in any way but wanted to be absolutely certain about this before talking with Senator Eastland.

3. (Unclassified - LLM) Attempted to see Mr. M. Albert Figinski, Chief Counsel, Senate Improvements in Judicial Machinery Subcommittee, in connection with Senator Tydings' letter to the Director on the Agency's cooperation with the U.S. courts on computerized translation of court reporter's notes. Mr. Figinski was unavailable and I will try to contact him Monday morning.
